Mr Wrong
Cracker

From: jk13@aol.com (JK13)
Subject: CRD: Mr. Wrong (Cracker)

Mister Wrong
Johnny Hickman/Cracker

G#   C#
Well meet me by the river that goes nowhere, G#   Eb
Let me lay my sorry trip on you
                      G#   C#
Oh won t you meet me by the river little darlin
G#   Eb   G#
I might just let you see my bare tattoo.
G#   C#
I was gonna bring you flowers but I didn t.
              G# Eb
It s the thought that counts and I think I m a bit too broke,
                                G#   C#
but there s some change in my ashtray,
                    G#
maybe just enough to pay
          C#   Eb
G#
for a half pint of something probably make us choke.

chorus:
G F# E (walk down bass notes)
          Eb   G#
 Well no I d rather not go and meet your family
G#, G, F, Eb   G#
 They d probably send me back where I belong,
                      C#   G#
Don t wanna hear about your mister right,
        Eb   G#   C#
He s out of town tonight,
G#   Eb   G#
Baby come and spend some time with mister wrong.

G#   C#
I drive a one-eyed Malibu without a muffler
          G# Eb
and a tape deck that works if you kick it hard enough
      G#   C#   G#

```
                C#
and baby if you like to read, I ve got some great pornography
        G#                                  Eb                        G#
and a ten pound flashlight floating in the trunk.

repeat chorus

        C#                                                    G#
And do you have a girlfriend and does she look as good as you
                C#
and would she like to meet my brother?
           Eb7
He ll be out of jail in a month or two.

instrumental break on verse chords
repeat first verse, chorus, end on this last line:

                C#                            Eb                    G#
Yeah where I come from they call me mister wrong.

All errors, misprints and mispellings are mine and mine alone.

jk13@aol.com    (john Kearney)
```