

Mr Wrong
Cracker

From: jk13@aol.com (JK13)
Subject: CRD: Mr. Wrong (Cracker)

Mister Wrong
Johnny Hickman/Cracker

F# B
 Well meet me by the river that goes nowhere,
F# C#
 Let me lay my sorry trip on you
F# B
 Oh won t you meet me by the river little darlin
F# C# F#
 I might just let you see my bare tattoo.
F# B
 I was gonna bring you flowers but I didn t.
F#
C#
 It s the thought that counts and I think I m a bit too broke,
F# B
 but there s some change in my ashtray,
F#
 maybe just enough to pay
B C#
F#
 for a half pint of something probably make us choke.

chorus:
 G F# E (walk down bass notes)
C# F#
 Well no I d rather not go and meet your family
F#, F, Eb,
C# F#
 They d probably send me back where I belong,
B F#
 Don t wanna hear about your mister right,
C# F# B
 He s out of town tonight,
F# C# F#
 Baby come and spend some time with mister wrong.

F# B
 I drive a one-eyed Malibu without a muffler
F#
C#
 and a tape deck that works if you kick it hard enough
F# B F#

B

and baby if you like to read, I ve got some great pornography

F#

C#

F#

and a ten pound flashlight floating in the trunk.

repeat chorus

B

F#

And do you have a girlfriend and does she look as good as you and would she like to meet my brother?

B

C#7

He ll be out of jail in a month or two.

instrumental break on verse chords

repeat first verse, chorus, end on this last line:

B

C#

F#

Yeah where I come from they call me mister wrong.

All errors, misprints and misspellings are mine and mine alone.

jk13@aol.com (john Kearney)