I just climbed out of the cotton wood tree
A
I was running from some honey bee s
D
Drip-drying in the summer breeze
E
After jumpin into Calecoe Creek
I was walkin down an old dirt road
A A/F#
Past a field of hey that had just been mowed
F#m D
Man I wish you d just left me alone
E A
Cause I was almost home

[Verse 2]

Then he said, I was just comin round the barn,
Bout the time you grabbed my arm
I heard momma holler son hurry up

I was close enough for my own nose
To smell fresh cobbler on the stove
I saw daddy loadin up the truck

[Bridge]

cane poles on the tailgate, bobbler s blowin in the wind since July of 55, that s as close as I ve been, Yea
