[Verse 1]

Bb

Raymonds in his sunday best,

He s usually up to his chest,

F

In oil and grease,

Bb

There s the Martins walking in,

With that mean little freckle faced kid,

F

Who broke a window last week,

Am

Dm

Sweet Miss Betty likes to sing off key,

Gm

F/B

Bb

C

In the pew behind me,

[Chorus]

F

That s What I love about Sunday,

Dm

Sing along as the choir sways,

Gm

Every verse of amazing grace,

C

Then we shake the preachers hand,

F

Go home to our blue jeans,

Dm

Have some chicken and some baked beans,

Gm

Pick our back yard football teams,

C

Not do much of anyhthing,

F

That s what I love about Sunday.

F - Dm - Gm - C

[Verse 2]

Bb

I stroll to the end of the drive,

Pick up the Sunday times,

F

Grab my coffee cup,

Bb

Well it looks like Sally and Ron,

Finally tied the knot,

F

Well it s about time,

Am

Dm

35 cents off of ground round,

Gm

F/B

Bb

C

Baby cut that coupon out,

[Chorus]

F

That s What I love about Sunday,

Dm

Cat nappin on the porch swing,

Gm

You curled up next to me,

C

The smell of jasmin wakes us up,

F

Take a walk down a back road,

Dm

Tackle box and a cane pole,

Gm

Carve our names in a white oak,

C

Still a kiss while the sun fades,

F

That s what I love about Sunday.

[Break]

F - Dm - Gm - C

[Verse 3]

F

New believers getting babtised,

Dm

Mommas hands raised up high,

Gm

Then halluloya good time,

C

A smile on everybodys face,
