

God Shuffled His Feet
Crash Test Dummies

god shuffled his feet
crash test dummies

a difficult song to sing in tune as the singer has a very strange tone to his voice that makes it sound lower than it actually is

D Bm
After seven days, he was
G D A
Quite tired, so God said
D Bm
Let there be a day just for
G Bm G
Picnics, with wine and bread
A D G
Gathered up some people he had made
Em A D G
Created blankets and laid back in the shade

[Chorus]

A E A
God shuffled his feet and glanced a round at them
D A E A D G
The people cleared their throats and stared right back at him

D Bm
The people sipped their wine, and what with
G D A
God there, they asked him questions, like
D Bm
Do you have to eat, or get your
G Bm G
hair cut in heaven
A D G
And if your eye got poked out in this life,
Em A D G
would it be waiting up in heaven with your wife

[Chorus]

D Bm
So he said once there was a boy, who G D A
woke up with blue hair.
D Bm

him it was a joy, until he

G Bm G

ran out into the warm air

A D G

He thought of how his friends would come to see

Em A D G

and would they laugh or had he got some strange disease

[Chorus]

D Bm
The people sat waiting out on their

G D A
To blankets in the garden. But

D Bm
God said nothing. So someone

G Bm G
asked him, beg your pardon

A D G
I m not quite clear a bout what you just spoke

Em A D G
Was that a parable or a very subtle joke

[Chorus]
