

Anyone For Tennis
Cream

[Intro :] G C G C G C G

D7

Twice upon a time in the valley of tears

C7

An auctioneer is bidding for a box of fading years

D7

And the elephants are dancing on the graves of squearling mice

C7 Cmaj7 G C G C G

Anyone for tennis wouldn't that be nice.

D7

And the ice-creams are all melting on the streets of bloody beer,

C7

While the beggars stain the pavements with florescent Christmas cheer

D7

And the Bentley driving guru is putting up his price

C7 Cmaj7 G C G

Anyone for tennis wouldn't that be nice.

D13

E7

D13

E7

And the prophets in the boutiques give out messages of hope

A

C

With jingle bells and fairy tales and blind colliding scopes

D7

and you can tell they're all the same underneath the pretty lights

C7 Cmaj7 G C G

Anyone for tennis wouldn't that be nice.

D13

E7

D13

E7

The yellow Buddhist monk is burning brightly at the zoo

A

C

You can bring a bowl of rice and then a glass of water too,

D7

and fate is setting up the chess-board while death rolls out the dice

C7 Cmaj7 G C G C G

Anyone for tennis wouldn't that be nice.

C7

Cmaj7

D13

E7

E	----	0-----	0-----	2-----	0-----
B	----	1-----	0-----	0-----	3-----
G	----	3-----	0-----	2-----	1-----
D	----	2-----	2-----	0-----	2-----
A	----	3-----	3-----	0-----	2-----

E -----0-----3-----0-----0-----