The sun rises to another day
My constitution keeps changing
Til it slips away
So I lie awake and stare
My mind thinking just wandering
Is anybody there? (he says Does anybody care?)
Should I stay or go
Should I sleep or stay awake
Am I really happy or is it all
Just an illusion

Sitting in my room now
Hiding thoughts
Just hoping one day I ll get out
I hear a voice call my name
Breaking trance so silent
So I can stay the same
Should i stay or go
Should I sleep or stay awake
Am I really happy or is it all
Just an illusion
Wait now, many things left unsaid
This life remains the same
But I change
I try to fool myself in believing
Things are going to get better
But life goes on
Should I stay or go
Should I sleep or stay awake
Am I really happy or is it all
Just an illusion
