Verse:

```

      Bb                Eb                Bb
A man from a magazine, who said I was on my way.
                Gm                Eb                F
But somewhere I lost connection, I ran out of songs to play.
      Bb                Gm                Eb                Bb
I planned many times of one-night stands, it looks like my plans fell through.
                F                Eb                Bb
Oh Lord, I m stuck in Lodi again.

Verse:

```

C                F                C
If I only had a dollar for every song I ve sung.
                Am                F                G
Or every time I had to play while people slapped their tongue.
      C                Am                F                C
I know I ll catch the next train, back to where I live.
                G                F                C
Oh Lord, I m stuck in Lodi again.
