C# B A E
All the lonely people roam
C# B A E
The streets in search of makeshift home

In all the darkness there s one light
C# B A E
A shining Mecca in the night

There s no sanctuary from your own mind

There s no sanctuary from the binds of time
A E B D
There s no sanctuary from what troubles you

There is nowhere else to go, this will have to do
