When I was a young man, I found an old dream

E B A C#m B
It was as battered and worn a one, as you have ever seen

E B A C#m B
I invented some new wings, and I painted a nose

E B A C#m A
I wished so hard, up in the air, I ro-o-ose, singing

E D A E
Carry me, carry me, carry me, above the world

D A E
Carry me, carry me, carry me

E B A C#m B
And I once loved a girl, she was younger than me

E B
Her parents kept her locked, up in their lives

A C#m B
And she was crying, she was wishing she could be free

E B
Of course I mostly remember her laughing

A C#m B
Standing there and watching us play

E B A C#m A
For a while then, the music, would take her away and she d be singing

E D A E

Carry me, carry me, carry me, above this world

D A E
Carry me, carry me, carry me, above the world

E B A
Then there was my mother, she was lying in white sheets there

C#m B
And she was waiting to die

E B A
She said if you just reach underneath this bed, and untie these weights

C#m B
I could surely fly

E B
She s still smiling but she s tired

A C#m B
She d like to hear that last bell ring

E B A C#m A
You know if she still could she would, stand up, she would sing

E D A E
Carry me, carry me, carry me, above the world

D A D A D A E
Carry me, carry me, oo-oooh, oo-oooh, oo-oooh, oo-oooh, oo-oooh, oo-oooh, oooh
