Crosby, Stills and Nash (Stephen Stills)

Eb G# Eb G# Eb

Eb Eb6 *
Four and twenty years ago,
Eb Eb6
I come into this life
Eb Eb6
The son of a woman,
Eb Eb6
and a man who lived in strife
F# G# Eb Eb6
He was tired of being poor;
F# G# Eb
and he wasn't into selling door to door
F# G# Eb
And he worked like the devil to be more

Eb G# Eb G# Eb

Eb Eb6 Eb Eb6
A different kind of poverty now upsets me so
Eb Eb6
Night after sleepless night,
Eb Eb6
I walk the floor and I want to know;
F# G# Eb Eb6
why am I so alone?
F# G# Eb
Where is my woman, can I bring her home?
F# G#
Have I driven her away?
Eb
Is she gone?

Eb G# Eb G# Eb

Eb Eb6
Morning comes to sunrise,
Eb Eb6
and I'm driven to my bed
Eb Eb6
I see that it is empty,
Eb Eb6
and there's devils in my head

F# G# Eb Eb6
I embrace the many colored beast,

F# G#
I grow weary of the torment;

Eb
can there be no peace?

F# G# Eb
And I find myself just wishing that my life would simply cease
