Crosby, Stills and Nash (Stephen Stills)

F# B F# B F#

F# F#6 ***
Four and twenty years ago,

F# F#6
I come into this life

F# F#6
The son of a woman,

F# F#6
and a man who lived in strife
A B F# F#6

He was tired of being poor;
A B F#
and he wasn't into selling door to door
A B F#
And he worked like the devil to be more

F# B F# B F#

F# F#6 F# F#6
A different kind of poverty now upsets me so

F# F#6
Night after sleepless night,

F# F#6
I walk the floor and I want to know;

A B F# F#6
why am I so alone?

A B F#
Where is my woman, can I bring her home?

A B
Have I driven her away?

F#
Is she gone?

F# B F# B F#

F# F#6
Morning comes to sunrise,

F# F#6
and I'm driven to my bed

F# F#6
I see that it is empty,

F# F#6
and there's devils in my head

A B F# F#6
I embrace the many colored beast,

A B
I grow weary of the torment;

F#
can there be no peace?

A B F#
And I find myself just wishing that my life would simply cease
