Distant Sun
By Neil Finn / Crowded House

The other versions posted never seemed quite right to me. Today, I found a cover version someone recorded and posted on YouTube. The chords sound much closer to the original CH version, so I watched his finges and worked out the chords for myself. I m not entirely certain about some of the chord names (I used a chord name lookup tool), but the fingerings seem pretty right. Enjoy!

Sounds good with capo at 2nd Fret

You re still so young to travel so far

Old enough to know who you are

Without any blame, there s no-one to blame

And I m lying on the table washed out in the flood
