Capo 2

E Am Am E

Verse 1

E Am
Even though i know youâ€™re wrong
Am E
i can never win E Am
disappointment i must bear E Am
underneath my grin

PreChorus

Bm A
there in the darkness on the stage E
the sting in my tail
Bm A
horizons that rise and fall F B7
and shadows grow so pale

Verse 2

creatures that come out to play go home to stay the night things i got so worried about are working out just fine

PreChorus

i donâ€™t remember and in the end itâ€™s useless to dwell â€˜cos nothing good is true unless you find out for yourself

Chorus

G#m A

old men be warned

D G

he canâ€™t be helped

G#m A

all those who went before

he canâ€™t be helped

G#m A

itâ€™s not your fault

it canâ€™t be helped

G#m

young men

Verse 3

their imagination knows no bounds as far as i can see thereâ€™s a love that canâ€™t be found

until you set it free

PreChorus

in the spotlight on the stage the sting in my tale

and shadows grow so pale

Chorus

old men be warned

he canâ€™t be helped

old men
