

People Are Like Suns
Crowded House

PEOPLE ARE LIKE SUNS - crowded house

Intro: Eb7 - A - G#m - G

Eb7                       A                       (A7)
Sweet madness, it must be wrong
                      G#m                                       G
What kind of fool imagines love, with all this going on Eb7                       A                       (A7)
stars burning in the empty sky
                      G#m                                       G
And the city is aflame with a million lights
                      B                                       Eadd2                       E
And they come and they go, in the blink of an eye

Chorus

G       A                       B7
People are like suns
                      Eadd2                                       E
they are burning up in- side
G       A                       B7
People are like suns

Eb7       A
Like suns
                      G#m                                       G
Science will enable us to hear, to be crystal clear
Eb7                       A
To make diamonds in the shifting sand
                      G#m                                       G
Better take all the love that you've got in a single hand
                      B                                       Eadd2                       E
And they come and they go in the fullness of time

Chorus

G       A                       B7
People are like suns
                      Eadd2                                       E
they are burning up in- side
G       A                       B7
People are like suns

F#m7
Breathing into life
                      E/Ab
All that's good in us
                      G#m                       B7

to saints be- come

Eb7 Oooh A It can t be helped

G#m
Doesn t stop me thinking out aloud

G
I could ve done something
