Out to the stars we gone
That s when it really went wrong
The woman partied till dawn
Like a new millenium
Changed the law and the deed was done
Now I m back where I started from
And I m on the run, I m on the run, I m back on the goddamn run

We are there, forever We re gone
Stayin here till salvation comes
Goin away till the sun goes dark
And we ll feel it real, believe it s gonna be forever

No man, No man must go
No man must alone
All man, all man be free
All man to freedom come
No man, No man with a throne
No man with a throne of gold
Too late, too late to know
Too late to know enough

No man, No man must go
No man must alone
All man, all man be free
All man to freedom come
No man, No man with a throne
No man with a throne of gold
Too late, too late to know
Too late to know enough
No man, No man must go
No man must alone
All man, all man be free
All man to freedom come
