Intro: C D G E
          C G D    4x

Verse:

C                    D                    G                    E
She goes out on a date, has the worst time of her life
          C                    G                    D
Comes home picks up the phone and calls the nice guy
C                    D                    G                    E                    C
He comes over that same night bringing her a piece of advice
G                    D
Ain t he a nice guy

Pre-Chorus:

E                    G
She tells him he s perfect
C                    D
But their friendship wouldn t be worth it

Chorus:

C                    D                    G
Sometimes you get tired of being the nice guy
          E                    C                    G
You wanna be the right guy for the job
          D
You wanna feel like a heart throb
          C                    D                    G
Most times you re alright with being the nice guy
          E                    C                    G

And hearing about the wrong guys they find
