Is it the snowflakes here in the winter time that keep ya home or the cold dry air that hurts to breathe on down your throat the icy roads and the snowballs that keep ya going
Your home has turned, into an
Inescapable dome

Why s it so hard to leave you got no bills to pay got no reason to stay, now you re still livin out your parents place anyway doing the same thing that you have done everyday and you make it out to be so hard to leave, but you dont know.. you dont know, no
 and you will never find out until you go you wont know, till you go

 and you wont know now, no, you wont know
 until you go.
