

Short Stories
Current Swell

A7 C7 G E F
-5----3----3---7---1-----|
-5----5----3---9---1-----|
-6----3----4---9---2-----|
-5----5----5---9---3-----|
-7----3----5---7---3-----|
-5----3----3---7---1-----|

intro

A7 C7 G7

A7 C7 G

A7 C7 G
I dont wanna write songs about depression
A7 C7 G
you probly won t hear me singing songs about the lady I love
A7 C7 G
i dont bring up gonvernments and politicians
A7 C7 G
but i got these short stories in my bag you know the ones that Im speaking of

A7 C7
the man in the suit who wants to be a stock market millionaire
G
with a twin brother over on the other side of town who wants to lay back beach
bum grow
hair
A7 C7
separated at birth and given up for an adoption
G
then the vagabond finds himself at the beach and the other one in a mansion and he said

A7 C7 G
I dont wanna write songs about depression
A7 C7 G
you probly won t hear me singing songs about the lady I love
A7 C7 G
i dont bring up gonvernments and politicians
A7 C7 G
but i got these short stories in my bag you know the ones that Im speaking of

A7 C7
well once upon a time a young man age 18 leaves his hometown to go see
G
what the rest of the world could offer him and to gain some clarity
A7

and now he s gone everywhere that he wanted to go

C7

and every thing was all said and done now

G

then he finds himself on the front door step of the home town that he came from
and he said

A7 C7 G

I dont wanna write songs about depression

A7 C7 G

you probly won t hear me singing songs about the lady I love

A7 C7 G

i dont bring up gonvernments and politicians

A7 C7 G

but i got these short stories in my bag you know the ones that Im speaking of

E

things goin bad but you dont care

F

stories told by the man in the rocking chair

G

or the crack head sleeping out on the street

no clothes on his back no shoes on his feet

E F

but the tale that he tells to me obviously aint reality

G

truth or fiction I m still listenin wanting more like his addiction

A7 C7 G

I dont wanna write songs about depression

A7 C7 G

you probly won t hear me singing songs about the lady I love

A7 C7 G

i dont bring up gonvernments and politicians

A7 C7 G

but i got these short stories in my bag you know the ones that Im speaking of