

Ulysses

Current Swell

[Verse 1]

F#

Have you ever seen my baby

F#

C#

Walking through the grass just after dawn?

F#

Have you ever read Ulysses?

F#

C#

No I haven't, but I heard that it's nice in song

[Chorus]

B

F#

I want to go where every man's gone

B

F#

Settle down where it's warm

F#

B

C#

Singing songs and writing poems underneath the tree

B

F#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong

F#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong

B

F#

C#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong as far as I can see

[Interlude]

F#

[Verse 2]

F#

Is there a point, a point in waiting?

F#

C#

For in the end it's nothing that you're waiting for

F#

Cause our time, our time is what you make it

F#

C#

You can run with it or break it, can't gamble on what's in store

[Chorus]

B

F#

I want to go where every man's gone

B

F#

Settle down where it's warm

F#

B

C#

Singing songs and writing poems underneath the tree

B F#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong

F#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong

B F#

C#

If it feels right then it can't be wrong as far as I can see

[Interlude]

F#

[Verse 3]

A#m B F# C#

We can only hope, we can only hope, what we yearn for comes to us in the end

A#m B

And if it buckles and falls apart, if it buckles and falls apart

F# C#

Pick up the pieces and bring it back to the beginning

B F#

Well I hope that it comes true, I pray that it comes, that it comes true

[Outro]

F#