

Definite Darkness
Cymbals Eat Guitars

Intro: F C D x3

F C - D F
Bring me to the world of guilt and sorrow for the races tonight
F C - D F
Where the boats go cutting through undulating mirror images of incandescent spires
F C - D F
The roads there are parabolas with nameless water towers near the exits
F C - D F
You-could-turn it all on end still wouldn't be taller than the biotic arch at the crown of creation

Am - G - F
There are people who put dirty hypodermic needles
Am - G - F
Between the seat cushions in the movie theaters
Am - G - F D F
We all have the same dream the night that we contract it...

C F
So maybe I've been sleeping less at your place
C F
Since that man's last panicked screams startled us awake
C Am
We're paralyzed as the cop cars arrived
F - Am G C F
Casting slow-spinning mobiles on your ceiling, three colors we watched the frozen moon
C Am
In daylight I stare past your eyes lenses
F - Am G C F
Windows framing solar wind rustling ivy on painted pink buildings

F C - D F
I've been hearing the soft step of gray-eyed governess
F C - D F
But I know you know the physical form of the moaning alarms coming from the Air Force base
F C - D F
A skinless and sinewy leviathan all terrible contraction and release
F-Am G C F
Debasement ringed in banner plane exhaust and scattering V's, of geese

Outro: F Am G C F Am D/F#
