

Definite Darkness
Cymbals Eat Guitars

Intro: E B C# x3

E B - C# E
Bring me to the world of guilt and sorrow for the races tonight
E B - C# E
Where the boats go cutting through undulating mirror images of incandescent spires
E B - C# E
The roads there are parabolas with nameless water towers near the exits
E B - C# E
You-could-turn it all on end still wouldn't be taller than the biotic arch at the crown of creation

G#m - F# - E
There are people who put dirty hypodermic needles
G#m - F# - E
Between the seat cushions in the movie theaters
G#m - F# - E C# E
We all have the same dream the night that we contract it...

B E
So maybe I've been sleeping less at your place
B E
Since that man's last panicked screams startled us awake
B G#m
We're paralyzed as the cop cars arrived
E - G#m F# B E
Casting slow-spinning mobiles on your ceiling, three colors we watched the frozen moon
B G#m
In daylight I stare past your eyes lenses
E - G#m F# B E
Windows framing solar wind rustling ivy on painted pink buildings

E B - C# E
I've been hearing the soft step of gray-eyed governess
E B - C# E
But I know you know the physical form of the moaning alarms coming from the Air Force base
E B - C# E
A skinless and sinewy leviathan all terrible contraction and release
E-G#m F# B E
Debasement ringed in banner plane exhaust and scattering V's, of geese

Outro: E G#m F# B E G#m C#/F#

(E B C#7 E) (G#m E B)x4 G#m C#/F# E (F# E)x3 (B G#m E B) repeat fade

Ohhh....
