

Definite Darkness
Cymbals Eat Guitars

Intro: G D E x3

G D - E G
Bring me to the world of guilt and sorrow for the races tonight

G D - E G
Where the boats go cutting through undulating mirror images of incandescent spires

G D - E G
The roads there are parabolas with nameless water towers near the exits

G D - E G
You-could-turn it all on end still wouldn't be taller than the biotic arch at the crown of creation

Bm - A - G
There are people who put dirty hypodermic needles

Bm - A - G
Between the seat cushions in the movie theaters

Bm - A - G E G
We all have the same dream the night that we contract it...

D G
So maybe I've been sleeping less at your place

D G
Since that man's last panicked screams startled us awake

D Bm
We're paralyzed as the cop cars arrived

G -Bm A D G
Casting slow-spinning mobiles on your ceiling, three colors we watched the frozen moon

D Bm
In daylight I stare past your eyes lenses

G -Bm A D G
Windows framing solar wind rustling ivy on painted pink buildings

G D - E G
I've been hearing the soft step of gray-eyed governess

G D - E G
But I know you know the physical form of the moaning alarms coming from the Air Force base

G D - E G
A skinless and sinewy leviathan all terrible contraction and release

G-Bm A D G
Debasement ringed in banner plane exhaust and scattering V's, of geese

Outro: G Bm A D G Bm E/F#

(G D E7 G) (Bm G D)x4 Bm E/F# G (A G)x3 (D Bm G D) repeat fade
