Intro: Em Cadd9 G (x2)

Em Cadd9 G

Should I call you officer

Em

Cadd9

G

â€™Cause youâ€™re asking all the questions that I get at the border

Em Cadd9 G

I know you want to file me away,

Em

Cadd9

G

Em Cadd9 G

With the girls who disappoint you every day

Em Cadd9 G

Iâ€™m no better staring at your mouth

Em Cadd9 G

Making other plans as the words come out

Em Cadd9 G

Itâ€™s hard to choose in a crowded room

Em

Cadd9

G

Em Cadd9 G

Youâ€™re never satisfied with the one youâ€™re talking to

Cadd9

G D

And if I believe in Jesus

Cadd9

G

D

Like a little girl in her Sunday dress

Cadd9

G D

And if I live forever like Elvis

Cadd9

Would I be perfect?

Em Cadd9 G

Em Cadd9 G
Well Iâ€™m not what I claim to be
Em Cadd9 G
And Iâ€™ve heard you whispering when I leave
Em Cadd9 G
Weâ€™re all trying to leave no trace
Em Cadd9 G Em Cadd9 G
But somehow your life gets written on your face

Cadd9 G D
And if I believe in Jesus
Cadd9 G D
Like a little girl in her Sunday dress
Cadd9 G D
And if I live forever like Elvis
Cadd9
Would I be perfect?

Em Cadd9 G

Bridge:

Cadd9 G
And what am I gonna tell that little girl
Em Em
When she asks me what I left for her
Cadd9 G
And what am I gonna tell that little girl
Em D
When she runs home crying, itâ€™s a cruel, cruel world
Cadd9 G
And what am I gonna tell that little girl
Em
That little girl

Em Cadd9
Iâ€™m twenty-two and Iâ€™ve been through hell
G
Where did I go when I lost myself?
Em Cadd9
Where did I go when I lost myself?
G Cadd9
Where did I go when I lost myself?

Cadd9 G D
And if I believe in Jesus
Cadd9 G D
Like a little girl in her Sunday dress
Cadd9 G D
And if I live forever like Elvis

Cadd9

Would I be perfect?

(x2)

Em Cadd9 G (play however many times you feel)
end on G

Enjoy! :)
