

Adams Child

Damian Wilson

Dmi F C Dmi
Cherish light through the favour of your forestry

Dmi F C Dmi
Lay me down by the leisure of my word

Dmi F C Dmi
Ease my mind for the way that lies ahead of me

Dmi Ami/E C Dmi
I dream but I ve never heard

Lose me now to the pleasures that come over me
Tease my thought and emotions, let them free
Deep through light, let the past remove its curse from me
Blind, I now sense I see

And in my depth, I am sure of change around of me
And like in state, I can feel the pulse of pain
Through my words, I am spoken to un-endlessly
But I conceal the shame

I stand alone by the forest and the apple tree
I climb the limb, though I m faithful til I die
As such I ll stay while the morning rises over me
For I am Adam s child

Cherish light through the favour of your forestry
Lay me down by the leisure of my word
Ease my mind for the way that lies ahead of me
I dream but I ve never heard
I dream but I ve never heard
