Damien Jurado " Beacon Hill

Capo on the 3rd fret

C C
Keeping you close, falling behind
F F
I lost my voice, you lost your mind
C C
You say you're not well, I say you're fine
F F
Walking with me through the aisles of a drugstore
C F C F
If you return to me, oh, if you return to me
C C
Your mother's a fake, a phantom who steals
F F
The smile on your face is not what you feel
C C
I'll check you in if you check me out
F F
Some lonesome wrist cutter who says I'm her brother
C F C F
Oh if you return to me, oh, if you return to me
C C
I read your reviews, I studied the lines
F F
I know them so well, my life's now a tragedy
C C
One for the road, two for the plan
F F
And I will be fine, as long as you take me
C F C F
And if you return to me, oh, if you return to me
C G F
It's all right, baby
C G F
It's all right, baby
C G F
It's all right, babe
C G F
It's all right
