

Dimes

Damien Jurado

* He transitions between A and Asus4, and Em and Em7 respectively throughout the entire song. Listen to the recording to get the timing down.

Capo 2

Intro:

Bb Bbsus4 Bb Fm Fm7 Fm x2

Bb Bbsus4 Bb Fm Fm7 Fm Cm

Verse: (played with transitions*)

Bb Fm

I ve got dimes by the dozen

Bb Fm

I m placing a call to your husband

Cm Bb Fm

Does he know about me at all

Bb Fm

I hang up when he answers

Bb Fm

It s too much for me to handle

Cm Bb Fm

What happens now, when it all goes down

Bb Fm

Gas station lights for a candle

Bb Fm

Your heart s put together then dismantled

Cm Bb Fm

Secrets are best when left unsaid

Chorus:

G Cm F

The floodgates are open and you ll see me running back

Bb G Cm F

And no one is perfect, you must admit it now

Verse:

I m in my best when you re pretending

And no paper plane is safe for landing

This is how the best all die

Holding my breath until you need me

Foraging my way into the simple

Somehow my voice was caught in the trees

Chorus

Verse:

The way you built this song and what they told us
Switching the lines just to confuse us
What happens now, now all goes down