B Bsus4 B F#m F#m7 F#m C#m

Verse: (played with transitions*)

B F#m
I ve got dimes by the dozen

I m placing a call to your husband
C#m B F#m
Does he know about me at all

I hang up when he answers
B F#m
It s too much for me to handle
C#m B F#m
What happens now, when it all goes down

Gas station lights for a candle

Your heart s put together then dismantled
C#m B F#m
Secrets are best when left unsaid

G# C#m F#
The floodgates are open and you ll see me running back
B G# C#m F#
And no one is perfect, you must admit it now

Verse:

I m in my best when you re pretending
And no paper plane is safe for landing
This is how the best all die

Holding my breath until you need me
Foraging my way into the simple
Somehow my voice was caught in the trees

Chorus

Verse:

The way you built this song and what they told us
Switching the lines just to confuse us
What happens now, now all goes down
