Verse 1

G		C		C/B
	Woke up and for the first time the animals were gone
Am7		D/A		G	D/F#
	It s left this house empty now, not sure if I belong
Em		Am7
	Yesterday you asked me to write you a pleasant song
B7
	I ll do my best now, but you ve been gone for so long

G		C		C/B
	The window s open now and the winter settles in
Am7		D/A		G	D/F#
	We ll call it Christmas when the adverts begin
Em		Am7
	I love your depression and I love your double chin
B7
	I love most everything that you bring to this offering

Chorus

Am		G		Am		G		G6	Gsus4	G
	Oh I know that I left you in places of despair
Am		G		Am		G		G6	Gsus4	G
	Oh I know that I love you, so please throw down your hair
Am		G		Am		G		G6	Gsus4	G
	At night I trip without you, and hope I don t wake up
	Am	G		Am		G
	Cause waking up without you is like drinking from an empty cup

Verse 2

G		C		C/B
----------	--	----------	--	------------

Woke up and for the first time the animals were gone

Am7 D/A G D/F#

Our clocks are ticking now so before our time is gone

Em Am7

We could get a house and some boxes on the lawn

B7

We could make babies and accidental songs

G C C/B

I know I ve been a liar and I know I ve been a fool

Am7 D/A G D/F#

I hope we didn t break yet, but I m glad we broke the rules

Em Am7

My cave is deep now, yet your light is shining through

B7

I cover my eyes, still all I see is you

Chorus

Am G Am G G6 Gsus4 G

Oh I know that I left you in places of despair

Am G Am G G6 Gsus4 G

Oh I know that I love you, so please throw down your hair

Am G Am G G6 Gsus4 G

At night I trip without you, and hope I don t wake up

Am G Am G

Cause waking up without you is like drinking from an empty cup
