

Empty Disciples
Dan Haseltine

Verse 1

G C
All my devotion and misguided loyalty
Em D
Swinging my sword in the garden while you pray for your enemies
G C
All my allegiance, I loved You and You alone
Em D
But whoâ€™d believe that I could mean it now that the rooster crowed?

Pre Chorus:

Am C
Now weâ€™re huddled up here, trying to swallow our fear
G
We still smell the bread and wine,
D
hear your words running through our minds
Am C
Holding our breath now, for what comes next now
G D
Holding out for some kind of sign

Chorus

C G
But thereâ€™s empty cross, thereâ€™s an empty tomb
Em Am
Fire and wind now sweeping in this tiny upper room
C G
Thereâ€™s a hungry world, thereâ€™s a risen King
Em Am
Unlock the doors, what reason more could we ever need?
D Em
So sing with me, I dare you to
C G
Because thereâ€™s an empty cross; thereâ€™s an empty tomb
G C Em D

Verse 2

G C
We wept from a distance, watched pieces of our dreams
Em C
Buried with you, every last wound sealed with stone
beyond our reach
G C
Sweet, sweet Jesus, every question, every fear
Em C

Vanishing, like vapour dreams now that you're standing here

C

Now the tears come easy, when you say you're leaving

Em

We touched the place the nails went through,

C

wanting one more day with you

C

But it's goodbye now, for a little while now

Em

D

Believing everything you said is true
