C F D

C F C F D C
This afternoon, me and my roommate changed my oil

F C F D
I felt like a man, as I drained my oil pan

G C
I put my car up on bricks

E Am
Now there s nothing I can t fix

F G C F G
If I could put you up on bricks

C F C
I ve never changed my own oil

F D C
He said I was three quarts low

F C F D
He shook his head, he shook his head and said, Dan, you re bad

G C
I said sometimes I forget

E Am
And it might just be genetic

F G C F G
Cars escape me just like my dad

Chorus:

C F G

And I should probably think more about where I m going and how I ll get there

C F G
And I should probably check my tire pressure keep it high so I don t stall

C F#m G

Don t stall

E F (barred)

D G D G E D

We gapped spark plugs and I guess I learned something new

G D G E
But I felt bad for that poor guy at Jiffy Lube

A D
He ll change oil, and I ll write songs

F#m Bm

And we ll all still get along

G A D G A

Forgive me I meant no wrong

Chorus:

D G A
And I should probably think more about where I m going and how I ll get there

D G A
And I should probably check my tire pressure keep it high so I don t stall

Don t stall

D
Don t stall
