REPEAT

I made a mistake and I never forgot
I tied knots in the laces of
My worried shoes
And with every step that I d take I d remember my mistake
As I marched further and further away
In my worried shoes oo oo oo oo oo oo oo oo oo oo
My worried shoes
And my shoes took me down a crooked path
Away from all welcome mats
My worried shoes
And then one day I looked around and I found the sun shining down

And I took off my worried shoes
My worried shoes
And the feet broke free to breathe the air
I didn t need to wear
My Worried shoes
Then I knew the difference between worrying and caring
Cause I ve got a lot of walking to do
And I don t want to wear
My worried shoes
