Rocky World - Daniel Lanois

G Bmin C G
My hands are wrapped in your raven hair
G Bmin C
In the faded picture on the back stair
C Bmin C
We were narrow, we were steady, trembling and ready
C D G
To give it Hell in this rocky world

G Bmin C G
You said do I look like I could be a strong mother
G Bmin C
And raise the good side of a young daughter
C Bmin C
In the hotel Shangri-La let me tell you
C D G
I ve been thinking of her in this rocky world

G Bmin C G
Chicago is heavy, but I can t turn around
G Bmin C
I m smuggling that whiskey, every flesh and pound
C Bmin C
Michigan I worry, and Susie I m sorry
C D G
That I lost you out there in the rocky world

C Bmin C
Would you build me a building a chapel up there
G Bmin C
At the top of the hill in the still blue air
C Bmin C
Near the weather vane, by the track and train
C D G
I ll be looking for you in the rocky world

G Bmin C G

She s turning twenty and out on the make

G Bmin C

Pounding the blacktop with a habit to shake

C Bmin C

She s looking for a manger in the eyes of a stranger

C D G

Down on the streets of a rocky world

G Bmin C G

Jenny has religion she sings in a church

G Bmin C

She s made a decision to colour her hair

C Bmin C

The Black man cut the sugar cane she watches the rain

C D G

In a building far from the rocky world

C Bmin C

Yeah I ll tell you something I ll never forget

G Bmin C

The sight of you in silhouette

C Bmin C

Outside Sault Ste. Marie you really threw me

C D G

When you pulled me down to your rocky bed

G Bmin C G

In a crowded room I stood there empty

G Bmin C

Looking for salvation and glory be

C Bmin C

When a shot turned my head and I saw you instead

C D G

Walk into my rocky world

Alright, there we go...Anybody else out there have more Lanois tunes to share?

Shaun
