

Bloodbook On The Half Shell
Danielson Famile

Blood Book on the Half Shell - Danielson Famile

Tabbed by:CDemmings
Email:cdemmings@hotmail.com

Tuning: Standard

I play all these chords in their bar forms. You can play them however you want.

D

Rowing ringing cares a flinging

D

As we ride this boat of hide

D

All eagle-eyed and dignified

D D C A#

Down the river across the great divide

A#

Words beside

A#

At the highest of tides

A

With my bona fide bride

A

She s my

A

Touring guide

G

And yes we both do reside

G

On this riverside

G D

Where we hide

D

Vacation s a lot of work

D

But here we are with ringing bells

D

And floating on this cockleshell

D

My pal Grins

D C A#

Hugs the wind and sighs

A#

We realize

A#

With our blank minds aside

A

Only to see the mystery

A

Of many books floating free

G

And those books are free indeed

There s one caught in the weed

D

Let s get it

C A#

Go get that lovely book

C A#

Let s grab those lovely books

C A#

Gather up all these books

C D

We re gettin looks looks

D

We re gettin the looks

C A#

These lovely bloody books

C A#

Arms full of lonely books

C A#

Freely collecting books

C A#

We re getting funny looks

C

While we are

A

Stacking

Organizing

B C

Filing

A B C

Piling way up high and rising

A

Dewey dusty

B C

Decimalizing

A

Sorting

Tracking

B C

Systemizing

G A A#

Can t believe we found this vintage

G A A#

We now have such great advantage

G A A#

Great they ll look in our library

G

Let s get goin

A A#

And let us hurry

D

Now now

D

Hey hey hey

D

What do they say

D

Collections sit and beg to play

D

Wanting to give

D

And speak with us

D

But neatly packed

D C A#

And nicely put away

A#

What to do

A#

For I ve heard they are good

A

But we ve also been told

They can t be understood

G

By simpletons like me

And should never be

D

So why try

C A#

Crack in to all those books

C A#

The lovely bloody books

C A#

We open up these books

C D

We taking looks looks

D

We re taking a look

D A#

Time to hit the books

C A#

The lovely bloody books

C A#

Arms full of lovely books

C A#

Open up all these books

C

It s got the

A B C

Words of one who made the river

A B C
Blood that s flowing through the soil

A B C
I got books I just don t read them

A B C
Cleaning scraps up from the table

G A A#
Flippin through with fingers pointing

G A A#
At the letter and the numbers

G A A#
Straining eyes and feeling better

G A A#
Wonderin how to be members

D

How now

(Whistle moment)

A

And I m turning the page
While on

A

Center stage

G

It is starting to sink
And I m to the brink

F#

With my plans in pencil
While the vision s in ink

A#

What to think

F# G A
My left brain tells me I m a fool

F# A B
My right brain tells me It s true

F# G A
I only am knowing one thing

F# A B
I like hearing good news

D B

It s true

D B

It s true

D B

It s true And it s false

D B

Gonna cost

D B

myself

D B
 For these books
D B
 Taking one second look
 A B C
 Gonna call my counselor now
D B
 He s gonna clear
D B
 Clear confusion
D B
 Then explain everything
F# G A
 These books steer our ship with good news
F# A B
 For now I got nothing to lose
C B
 My brother
C B
 Remembers
C B
A thousand
 C B
 I can t quote you one line
 C B
 But oh now
C B
 I shall
C B
 Know all of your ways
 A B C
 With warm cockles in to my heart
 D B
 And dancing to hits
 D B
 And skipping around
 D B
 Around on unsinkable ships

| / slide up
 | \ slide down
 | h hammer-on
 | p pull-off
 | ~ vibrato
 | + harmonic
 | x Mute note
 | b Bend
 | pb Pre-bend
 | br Bend release
 | pbr Pre-bend release

| brb Bend release bend
