

It Must Have Been Love
Danni Carlos

F            C
Lay a whisper on my pillow,
                 F                    G
leave the winter on the ground
                 C                                    F
I wake up lonely, there s air of silence
         Dm                                    G
in the bedroom and all around
                 Am                    C                    F
Touch me now, I close my eyes and dream away

G                                    C
It must have been love, but its over now
F                                    Dm                    Am
It must have been good, but I lost it somehow
G                                    C
It must have been love but its over now
F                                    Dm                                    Am
from the moment we touched till the time had run out

G    C
Make believing, we re together
                 F                                    G
that I m sheltered by hour heart
                 C                                    F
But in and outside I ve turned to water
                 Dm                                    G
like a teardrop in your palm
                 Am                                    C                    F
And its hard, winter s day, I dream away

G                                    C
It must have been love, but its over now
F                                    Dm                    Am
It was all I wanted, now I m living without
G                                    C
It must have been love but its over now
Gm                                    C                                    Bb
Its where the water flows, its where the wind blows
