

Eb                    F                    G

Baby, I compare you to a kiss from a rose on the gray

Eb                    F                    G

Ooh, the more I get of you the stranger it feels, yeah

Eb                    F                    Eb                    F                    G

Now that your rose is in bloom, a light hits the gloom on the gray

F                    C                    Bb                    F

I ve been kissed by a rose on the gray

C                    Bb                    G

I ve been kissed by a rose on the gray

Eb                    F                    G

There is so much a man can tell you, so much he can say

Eb                    F                    G

You remain my power, my pleasure, my pain

Eb                    F                    G

Baby, to me you re like a growin addiction that I can t deny

Eb                    F

Won t you tell me is--that healthy, babe?

G                    Gm                    Eb                    F

Did you know that when it snows my eyes become larger

Eb                    F                    G

And the light that you shine can t be seen?
