If $I$ find my way, through the darkest of days,
$\mathbf{F} \quad \mathbf{C} \mathbf{G}$
Will I laugh about the things that kept me awake, C

Am
But if my greatest fears paints itself so crystal clear,

```
F

G
Please don t think $I$ planned to lose to the night.
$\mathbf{F} \quad \mathbf{C}$
And curse the moon so dull and bright
F Am
My heavy soul can $t$ stand the light
D
It burns me straight to the bones, Dm
My bones...

In the desert sun $I$ watched my nerves come undone, $\mathbf{F} \quad \mathbf{C} \quad$ G
One by one like strings they tangled into knots. C

Ever since that day, deep in Santa Fe,

F

C $\quad \mathbf{G}$
I ve learned to hate myself for giving everything away.
