Longest Story Daphne Loves Derby Intro C Am F G Far past these roads Am there is a place where all our precious dreams remain someday i know Am i ll find a way to keep myself from holding on Am Stay awake with the sound of my voice F i m restless from the silence in the air Am I want to be somewhere i can see the roads a place where everytime you breathe a wish comes true i want to be where love is real and memories of distant days come to life again Inside this room Am time will stand still as long as we re not aware of change the world outside Amleaves me behind by myself there s no mercy for those who hold on

Am F

Stay awake with the sound of my voice

Αm i m restless from the silence in the air C Am I want to be somewhere i can see the roads a place where everytime you breathe a wish comes true i want to be where love is real and memories of distant days come to life again Am F Am G Am F Am G Far past these roads Am there is a place where all our precious dreams remain someday i know i ll find a way to keep myself from holding on I want to be somewhere i can see the roads a place where everytime you breathe a wish comes true i want to be where love is real and memories of distant days come to life again