Intro: B â€" F# - D#m -C#

B   F#
Stopped in my tracks
D#m   C#
Caught in her eyes
       B   F#
And my heartâ€™s beating fast
           D#m   C#
And all that chemo was this corny lie
  B   F#
I hope that you know CPR
       D#m   C#
â€˜Cause girl you take my breath away
      B   F#
No, I canâ€™t believe that I just said that
D#m   C#
What I really meant to say

      B   F#
Is that I know that smile has broken a couple hearts
D#m   C#
Youâ€™re used to always getting what you want
B   F#   D#m
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
        C#
Oh girl, oh girl, check you out

  B   F#
Yeah, that smile has broken a couple hearts
D#m   C#
Youâ€™re used to always getting what you want
B   F#   D#m
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
     C#
Oh girl, oh girl, check you out

   B   F#
I tried to relax
     D#m   C#

But my tongue kept getting tied
     B   F#
The star and land
          D#m   C#
But nothing seemed to come out right
B   F#
Girl, I know you must be tired
                      D#m   C#
â€˜Cause youâ€™ve been running through my mind all day
                      B   F#
Yeah, I know I canâ€™t believe that I just said that
D#m   C#
What I really meant to say

          B   F#
Is that I know that smile has broken a couple hearts
D#m   C#
Youâ€™re used to always getting what you want
B   F#   D#m
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
          C#
Oh girl, oh girl, check you out

  B   F#
Yeah, that smile has broken a couple hearts
D#m   C#
Youâ€™re used to always getting what you want
B   F#   D#m
Drop dead beautiful, knows how to knock them down
          C#

D#m   C#
That, that smile has broken, that smile
          B   F#
No, I canâ€™t believe that I just said that

What I really meant to say
