

Exodus

Darius Rucker

Exodus- Darius Rucker

This is actually a song from Darius Rucker's solo album, the former lead singer of Hootie and the Blowfish...This song is hella simple...it's only 3 chords repeated over and over again...but it's still so damn beautiful...Side note: Musiq co-wrote and does the back ground vocals on this song...it's awesome

{Intro:}

(Ebm, Db, B, B) 4x

{Verse 1:}

Ebm Db B B

She said so, so many times in my life

Ebm Db B B

Once I thought things were fine, it would rain

Ebm Db B B

This is how it is each and everyday I live

Ebm Db B B

Things I thought would be my joy, turn to pain

{Train:}

Ebm Db B B

So when it pours and you're in deep water

Ebm Db B B

And you can't tell the difference from the rain and your tears

Ebm Db B B

I will be the one who's there, who'll always be there

Ebm Db B B

To drink the river flowing from your eyes

{Chorus:}

Ebm Db B B

Exodus is yours, love

Ebm Db B B

Let the midnight sun disappear

Ebm Db B B

Heaven would be yours, love

Ebm Db B B

Let me be the one to take you there

{Verse 2: (Same as verse 1)}

So don't worry or sweat the small things

Everything in your lives bound to change

All the things you re going through
I will bare the weight with you
There s no shame, know what I m saying
There s a way to pull through

{Train:}

Oh and when it pours girl and you re in deep water
And you can tell the difference from the rain and your tears
I will be the one whos there, who ll always be there
To drain the river flowing from your eyes

Chorus:

Exodus is yours, love
Let the midnight sun disappear
And Heaven could be yours, love
Let me be the one to take you there

{Bridge: Same chords as the rest of the song but they re more stacatto}

Ebm

Db

I ll help you carry it all
(I ll help you carry all)

You don t have to worry at all
(No you don t have to worry)

Ebm

Db

And if you stumble and fall
(If you sumble and fall)

B [let it ring]

I ll be there for you

(I ll help you, aw)

Ebm

Db

I ll help you carry it all
(You don t have to, aw)

B

You don t have to worry at all

Ebm

Db

Girl and if you fall, I ll be there

B

Through it all, through it all

{Chorus Out:}

Exodus is yours, love
Let the midnight sun disappear
And Heaven could be yours, love
Please let me be the one to take you there, there

This is easy to sing along with and the adlibs are so gangsta..

When I play this song, I play an F# instead of the Ebm at the beginning of the chorus, and I play a Bsus (224422) instead of the B every other line in the song...

it doesn't change the melody of the song or the way it's sang, it's just my little way
of making it mine...
