

Caught In A Lie
Darren Criss

E B
We ve been playing all of our lives
G#m7 A
in a world of little white lies and if E B
we re gonna make it then we re gonna have to fake it and G#m7 A
no ones gonna realize that we ve got

C#m B F# A
nothin but the songs we sing
C#m B F# A
before we know what s happenin
C#m B F# A
we might be the next big thing
F# A E
and i wish we could escape it but lets face it now we re caught in a lie

Or something like that. Anyway, this is really short, but I really like this song (And god, Little White Lies is awesome). Gotta love Darren Criss, what else can I say? Hope it helps :)
