Remember that time,
When you wouldn t talk to me,
When you wouldn t talk to me, all night.

Remember that song,
and all the words we d sing.
Well here s a song I d sing, all right.

Remember that way,
When you d never lie to me,
cause you d never lie to me, no way.

You could be faking it.
My god, don t be like that,
I don t like the way you act around me.

So baby, come on, come on.
Oh don t you tell me no, there you go again
You re ten out of ten,
Sorry did I just stutter?
Won t tell you what you know, there you go again,
You were never my friend, you were never my lover.

Remember that night,
When I saw you standing there,
Dark eyes, dark hair, it s just you.

Remember the way,
You were way out of line,
I was way out of time, for you.

And I got your number, right next to your name.
But it ain t nothing, no, it ain t enough.
That I got your word, I know, that it s all ok.
Trying to forget, your kind of...

So baby, come on, come on.
Oh don t you tell me no, there you go again
You re ten out of ten,
Sorry did I just stutter?
Won t tell you what you know, there you go again,
You were never my friend, you were never my lover.

I know you could be better,
You don t have to waste my time,
It s not like I need you more than I need me,
And, I know that you want it
Trying to get you on it,
Baby we could **** the rest, turn around and run it.
Tell me what your convictions, the promises you keep,
I ve got a proposition, and friction that you need.

Don t you tell me that, you don t want too.
Don t you tell me that, you don t want too.

So baby, come on, come on.
Oh don t you tell me no, there you go again
You re ten out of ten,
Sorry did I just stutter?
Won t tell you what you know, this is the end.
You were never friend, you were never my, you were never my lover.
