

Dublin Sky
Darren Hayes

here goes:

G

Iâ€™ve been down a lonely street tonight

C

And I donâ€™t know whatâ€™s wrong with me

I donâ€™t know whatâ€™s wrong with me

G

The clouds cover up the Dublin sky

C

I donâ€™t know whatâ€™s left of me

I donâ€™t know whatâ€™s right with me

D

And Iâ€™ve tried to keep my distance

C

And Iâ€™ve sung Amazing Grace

Iâ€™ve tarnished all our memories

C

G

But thereâ€™ll always be a trace of you

C

Of you

G

I remember laughing on that riverâ€™s edge

C

Trying to get you to jump with me

Trying to get you to fall for me

G

And your trembling heart it beat so fast

C

Holding hands you promised me

Holding hands we counted to three

D

And I felt your slipping fingers

C

And I saw you change your mind

D

If I hadnâ€™t dragged you in with me

C

G

You would have let me dive without you

C

G C

Without you

D C
They sent you all the way from Hollywood
D C
And maybe that Dublin sky was changing you
Am
It put diamonds in your eyes
C
I always thought we were going to make it through
G C
But I wanted to hear it first from you

G
How many days am I going to regret you?

How many nights till I forget you?
C
Have I been wasting all those years?

Held down by these tears?
G
How many dreams have I left deserted?

How many hopes have been diverted?
C
Have I been buried in the dirt?

Held down by this hurt?
G
How many loads did I let you hijack?

How many ways can I stand here in playback?
C
How did I end up lying here

Crying underneath the Dublin sky?
G
How many days am I going to regret you?

How many nights till I forget you?
C
Have I been wasting all these years?
G
Drowning in my tears?
