Darren Korb

There s a G note bend played on top of an E major chord often, listen for the timing.

Just reach up with your pinky to bend the G up to G#. Play something like this and you should catch on:

```

-----|
----0--0-0----0--0-0-----0-----|
----1--1-1----1--1-1-----1-----|
----2--2-2----2--2-2-----2-----|
----2--2-2----2--2-2-----2-----|
-0--0-----0-0-----3b4-0-0-----|

E
 Gods ain t gonna help you son
           G      A          E
 you ll be sorry for what you done

E
 them gods gonna hurt you son
           G          A          E
 when you play with a loaded gun
           G          A          E
 when you play with a loaded gun

C                  E
 They ain t gonna catch you when you fall
C                  B
 you ll be pleading while you re bleeding

E
 They ain t gonna hear ya son
           G          A          E
 don t care about what you done
E
 they ain t gonna help you son
           G      A          E
 you ll be sorry for what you done
           G      A          E
 be sorry for what you done

Old Pyth, cranky old bull

E

make you sorry for what you done

Hense, in a black veil

E

gonna prick you for what you done

Roathus got you empty

E

got you weeping for what you done

I say mother, lonely old gal

E

tear your heart out for what you done

G

A

E

tear your heart out for what you done
