Verse:

D
Got a call last night from an old friendâ€™s wife

Said I hate to bother you

D
Johnny Ray fell off the wagon

Heâ€™s been gone all afternoon

G
I know my buddy so I drove to Skullyâ€™s

And found him at the bar

I say hey man, whatâ€™s going on

He said I donâ€™t know where to start

D

Sarah's old car's about to fall apart

And the washer quit last week

D

We had to put momma in the nursing home

D

And the baby's cutting teeth

G

I didn't get much work this week

G

And I got bills to pay

A

I said I know this ain't what you wanna hear

A

But it's what I'm gonna say

(Chorus)

D

Sounds like life to me it ain't no fantasy

It's just a common case of everyday reality

D

G

Man I know it's tough but you gotta suck it up

B

A

A

To hear you talk you're caught up in some tragedy

D

It sounds like life to me

Verse:

D

Well his face turned red and he shook his head

He said you don't understand

D

Three kids and a wife depend on me

And I'm just one man

G

To top it off I just found out

That Sarah's 2 months late

A

I said hey bartender set us up a round

We need to celebrate

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
