Verse 2

Now I see everyone else

from a small window They all seem so normal
it feels really shallow
So I wondered why everyone were against me I thought that it s normal to be who I want to be And they all call me crazy but I just wished to be free

Chorus:

I wanna run on all fours just like anyone around me so I run after my friends but my friends wanna catch me I m not like anyone else cause they just wanna hurt me, stop me and torture me but that s alright Cause I know who I am
but still no one believes me, believes me, believes me

(Finger picking: G D Em C G D Em C)

Cause I know who I am
but still no one believes me, believes me, believes me

I hope you enjoyed this and I hope it s right! Thank you.
