These Bones - Dashboard Confessional

Tuning: Standard EADGBe

This is my first tab. It is quite sad that there aren't really a lot of Dashboard Confessional tabs, I encourage people to make more, cuz it's just an awesome band.

These Bones

B

Lay my bones

F#

At the feet of the ministry

E

I need the guilt and the company

F#

I need the chance to be judged

And then long forgotten

B

Lately I just can't shake it

F#

I count the days in seconds and minutes

E

F#

Hours and hours are subtle as shards of glass

In the skin

G#m

So lay with me

E

I could use the company

You could help me ease

B

These bones are like maps and keys

F#

Where they took their hits, and they felt those teeth

G#m

There's a story hidden underneath

E

F#

If you dig in deep, will you find relief?

B

For these bones shudder all night long

F#

The hammer drops, another scar

G#m

For these bones but I know

E

F#

They re only my second home

B

F#

Naked and under the cover of night

E

It s just a matter of time til I m

F#

Counted and measured and filed

And then long forgotten

B

Forgive my manner of speaking

F#

I know it s quick, but the clock is still ticking

E

F#

And I ve got a few words left burning holes on my tongue

I ve been saving them

G#m

So lay with me

E

I could use the company

You could help me ease

B

These bones are like maps and keys

F#

Where they took their hits, and they felt those teeth

G#m

There s a story hidden underneath

E

F#

If you dig in deep, will you find relief?

B

For these bones shudder all night long

F#

The hammer drops, another scar

G#m

For these bones but I know

E

F#

They re only my second home

G#m

F#

No you won t go down alone

E

F#

No you won't go down alone

G#m F#

No you won't go down alone

E

No you won't go down alone

G#m

So lay with me

E

I could use the company

You could help me ease
