

To Belong
Daughter

Am C
Don t you think you ll be better off
G D
Without me tied around your neck, it s like the way your
Am C G
Body pulls me underneath where I can t breathe
D Am C G D
I m tired of talking, I ve been screaming all day

Am C
Don t you think we ll be better off
G D
Without temptation to regress, to fake tenderness
Am C G
Waiting to see someone we won t know for long
D Am C G D
In cities we ll only leave

Am C
Don t you think we d be better off
G
Without the pressure to address
D
A room of faces
Am C G
Waiting to hear some strange women speak in tongues
D Am C
On lonely fridays of my loveless drunk, baby
G D
Loveless drunk, baby

Am C G D
I don t want to belong, I don t want to belong
Am C G D
I don t want to belong, to you, to anyone
Am C G D
I don t want to belong, I don t want to belong
Am C G D
I don t want to belong, to you, to anyone
Am C G D
I don t want to belong, I don t want to belong

Am C
Don t you think we d be better off
G
Without the pressure to address
D

A room of faces

Am

C

G

Waiting to hear some strange women speak in tongues

D

Am

C

On lonely fridays of my loveless drunk, baby

G

D

Loveless drunk, baby