

You Dont Belong
Daughtry

C#m

With time to kill and an empty tomb,

B

I always find a way to pass the time with you

A

Dark and smokey room

I can hardly stand the fumes

C#m

Telling me that you mean no harm, you

B

stand me up like a crutch, another arm

A

But only when I m gone

E B

Have I been away too long?

C#m

A

No, You don t belong to me

E

I think you lied to me

B

And with my back against this wall, it`s hard to be strong

C#m

A

No, You d tell me anything

E

Look what you ve done to me

B

C#m

And still I tell myself that tomorrow you ll be long gone

C#m

Any given time or place,

B

I never will forget the disgrace on

A

your face so full of love

Will it ever be enough?

C#m

Ten feet tall and bullet proof,

B

I never thought that I had a thing to lose

A

Well it looks like after all

E B

I m gonna have to choose

A

C#m

B

You help pass the time but I m doing fine on my own

F#m

A

C#m

So there s no good reason why to live such a lie

B

F#m

A

Tell me have I been gone away too long?

C#m

A

No, You don t belong to me

E

I think you lied to me

B

And with my back against this wall, it`s hard to be strong

C#m

A

No, You d tell me anything

E

Look what you ve done to me

B

C#m

And still I tell myself that tomorrow you ll be long gone

Long gone
