

Red Rover

Dave and Brian

This is what they said was the chords on their YouTube video. I tried it out and it sounded right so, here s one of the greatest songs on earth.

(Verse 1)

C

Saw her on the sidewalk sellin lemonade

Am

Her name was Jessica, we were in the third grade

F

She had style, she was cute

G

In her stonewashed jeans and her jelly shoes

C

Within a week a was callin her my girlfriend

Am

That s when I started to neglect my teddy Rufspin

F

We spent a lot of time talkin on the phone

G

And watchin classic films like Home Alone

C

She put Brian Adams on a mixed tape for me

Am

Then in fourth grade she started to ignore me

F

She got into makeup, I got into kickball

G

It was a messy breakup

(Chorus)

Am F

Red Rover (Red Rover)

C G

Me and Jessica are over

Am F

She broke my heart and hurt my wrist

C G

With her snap bracelet

Am F

Red Rover (Red Rover)

C G

Me and Jessica are over

Am F G

And I don't think I'll ever fall in love again

C

At least not till I'm ten

(Verse 2)

C

She asked me to dance at the Halloween party

Am

I was Jake the snake and she was Tanya Harding

F

The next day when I asked her out

G

She said I can't right now I gotta watch full house

C

So pretty soon things got a little messy

Am

She found a new guy, he looked like Uncle Jesse

F

I should've known right from the start

G

While I played Nintendo she played with my heart

C

When we were young we took so much for granted

Am

Like Hootie and the Blowfish and Pluto as a planet

F

She's alone in Wal-Mart

I'm stalkin' her on MySpace

G

She should not have broken my heart

(Chorus)

Am F

Red Rover (Red Rover)

C G

Me and Jessica are over

Am F

She broke my heart and made me sick

C G

With mononucleosis

Am F

Red Rover (Red Rover)

C G

Me and Jessica are over

Am F G

And I don't think I'll ever fall in love again

C

At least not till I'm ten
